

THE INDEPENDENT FILMMAKING SEMINAR

Great Stories Deserve Being Well Told. A Seminar to Create Great Visual Storytellers.

WHEN: March 3-5, 2016 (seminar starts 2:00pm Thursday, ends 3:30pm Saturday)

WHERE: Abilene, Texas: Frontier Texas Museum & Paramount Theater

WHAT: A three-day independent filmmaking seminar for beginners and entry to mid-level professionals. The seminar will include presentations, screenings of new documentary films and the creation of a short film from start-to-finish by the seminar team. By attending this seminar attendees will be able to attend all Tribute Film Festival events including social/networking events in downtown Abilene and a festival gala at the Historic Paramount Theater to screen the award winning films on Saturday evening March 5th. Seminar registration is limited to 22 attendees.

Seminar Topics:

- Independent Filmmaking 101: Overview of process and specific techniques. The class will make a short film from start-to-finish during the seminar.
- Screenwriting For Non-Fiction: How to compose great visual stories.
- Film Production Trends: From basic to new/advanced technology and tips.
- Film Marketing & Distribution: How to get the most out of your films.

WHO: Seminar presenters include independent film producers, experienced museum filmmakers and professional instructors. Hosted and administered by Frontier Texas, a nonprofit history museum and regional heritage center. The seminar cosponsored by the Texas Association of Museums and the Texas Forts Trail Heritage Association.

WHY: To encourage the growth of independent “heritage filmmaking” and to promote excellence in the filmmaking craft. To support museums, historians and other nonprofits that need to tell inspirational, worthy, relevant stories.
